

Torrance Central Pony League

Thirteen, Fourteen-Year Olds Open 1960 Season

MENTORED by Gene Harris, the White Sox are (front row, left to right) Mike Vandenburg, Tom Harris, John Backlund, Tom Garrison, Gerry Hughes, Ricky Adams and Abie

Grjalva. Back row: Robert Graybell, Acil Sarraff, Steve Kealey, Bill Harris, Lloyd Voorhees, Gary Brugman, Bill Gilliard and Harris. Coach Jim Adams was not present.

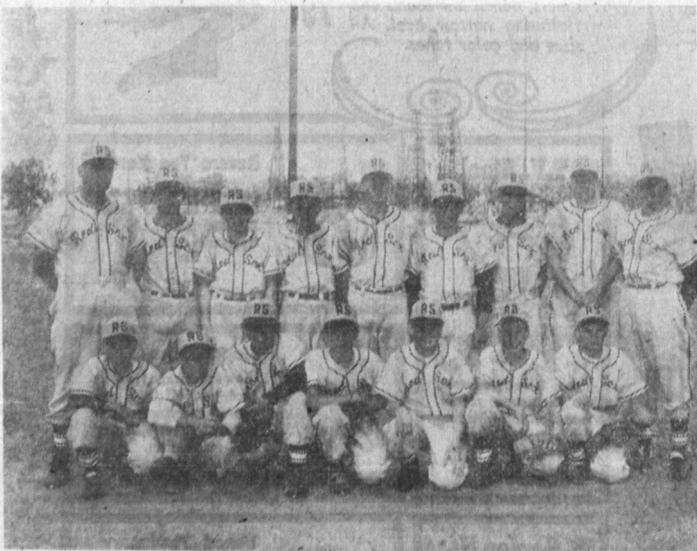

Youngsters making the roster of the Torrance Central Pony League come from homes bounded by Hawthorne Blvd. on the west, 190th St. on the north, Western Ave. on the east and Torrance city limits on the south.

President of the League, Edwin Friberg, rules over a complement of six teams. They are the Indians, White Sox, Yankees, Red Sox and Cardinals.

The league opened its season yesterday at Mobil Field on 190th St., North Torrance. According to Pony League rules, youngsters participating are 13 and 14-year-olds having been born between the dates of Aug. 1, 1945, and July 31, 1948.

Sponsors of the teams are Torrance Kiwanis, Torrance Police Association, Southwest Savings, Joslin Lumber, Space Technology Laboratories and Torrance Lions Club.

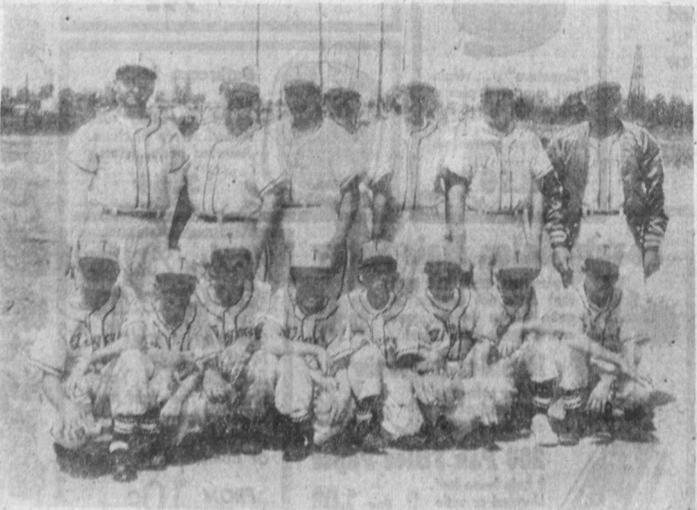

BACKED by the Police Association, the Red Sox are (front row, left to right) Frank Henderson, Mike Wolf, Willie Castello, Tommy Hill, Jimmie Nelson, Mickey Grand, James

Forrester. Back row: Manager Bob Henderson, James King, Randy Tyler, David Roberts, Butch Davis, Rickey Morgan, Ray McGuire, Mike Halter and Assist. Mgr. Walt McGuire.

SPONSORED by Southwest Savings, the Yankees of the League are (front row, left to right) Larry McClour, Ysidio Flores, Norman Fern, Eddie Friberg, Jack Tweed, David Stoneberg and Keith Patton. Back row: Manager Lud Marjola, Roy McCray, John Marjola, Bill Kanatsky, assistant manager, Tom Meadows, Steve Moody, Dennis Gates and Ricky Wroge. Coach Carl Meadows was not present.

SPONSORED by Space Technology Laboratories, the Tigers are managed by Don Murray, in jacket. Others are, front row, left to right: John Parker, Butch Kroptavich, Jay Goldsmith, Dan Murray, Richard Sleek, Bill

Gretlum, Tim Lehr and Steve Combs. Back row: Coach Jim Kroptavich, Bob Pelle, Armond Turkmany, Mark Salcido, Roy Muncy, Dave Fischer and Murray.

MAKING LIKE the Gashouse Gang are the Cardinals. Skipped by J. B. Wallace, in background right, the team is made up of (front row, left to right) Gary Thornhill, Bob Sullivan, Ronald Bare, Bill Polick, Glenn Stein-

haus, Carl Randall and Bill Valles. Back row: Jon Hadley, Don Bill, John Ratzlaff, Mike Marshall, Dale Bill, Douglas Kintz and Clayton Wallace. Coach is Ben Steinhaus, not in picture.

PLAY

BALL!

MANAGED by Loyd G. Langiers, the Indians are (front row, left to right) Allan McIntire, Kenny Holmes, Robert Drury, Frank Hardy, Michael Oliver, Lawrence Villa and Jack Thomas. Back row: Skipper Langiers, Lonnie Langiers, Gregory Baron, Alton Deatherage, Michael Curry, Glenn Paquin, Michael Adams and Ruby Adams. The team is sponsored by the Torrance Lions Club.